

Adviser Checklist - Establishing whether a European National has the Right to Reside in the UK

1. Which nationality
2. Details of family member including their nationality, economic activity and details of support provided from family
3. Length of time in the UK and details of any temporary absences and reasons (absences of a maximum of 12 months for important reasons such as pregnancy, childbirth, serious illness, etc don't break continuity of residence)
4. Reasons for coming to the UK
5. Employment and self-employment history
  - the period of employment
  - the number of hours worked
  - the level of earnings
  - whether the work was regular or erratic
  - for self-employed, whether they registered as self-employed with HMRC, advertised their business, etc
6. If unemployed, was it involuntary unemployment, or due to illness/accident at work
7. Details of any health problems, any accident at work or an occupational disease which resulted incapacity to work
8. For JSA claimants, after 6 months of claiming, what efforts they have made to find work and whether they have a genuine prospect of finding work in the UK
9. Details of children's education ("general education") and whether parents have previously been a worker while the child was in the UK and child would not be able to continue their education if parent had to leave the UK.
10. For students and self-sufficient person – whether they have comprehensive sickness insurance for themselves and their family