

Hackney – Information and Advice Caseworker for those that are hard of hearing, sight loss, blind and other disabilities

This is an exciting time to work with deafPLUS. We are seeking an Information and Advice Caseworker to provide advice to people who are hard of hearing, visually impaired, blind and who may also have other disabilities in Hackney. You will enable them to understand their rights and responsibilities, access what they are entitled to, manage and resolve their problems and build their independence.

If you:

- have great organisational and interpersonal skills
- have experience of giving social welfare and other advice (in either a paid or volunteer position)
- have great communication skills
- have an awareness and understanding of issues pertaining to hard of hearing, visually impaired, blind and those who may also have other disabilities

Then you are the person we are looking for:

- This is a part time position 21 hours a week, initially for 9 months
- Salary - £23,000 - £26,000 (pro rata) depending on experience

Closing date for applications: 27th March 2022 at 11.59pm.

How to apply:

Please send a copy of your CV and complete the Response Form and send to hazel.saunders@deafplus.org.

For an informal chat or further details, please contact: Hazel Saunders, Project Manager, hazel.saunders@deafplus.org or visit our website www.deafplus.org.

We welcome applications from suitably experienced individuals irrespective of racial origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy and maternity, gender, religion or disability.
